

Kristina's Trail

Kristina's Trail

Memory rocks left in love, along the trails she never got to finish.

Welcome

If you've found a memory rock, you've discovered a piece of Kristina's story. She was a hiker, an adventurer, a joyful soul who filled every moment with light. These rocks were hers—collected on trails, hikes, and adventures—and are now being shared across the country to keep her spirit moving forward.

Share Your Find

Upload a photo of the rock, tell us where you found it, and feel free to leave a message.

Submit a Rock Find

Trail Journal

See where Kristina's memory rocks have traveled, and read messages from those who've found them.

View the Journal

About Kristina

Kristina was brave, bright, and loved the world deeply. She found peace in nature and joy in little things—rocks, fair food, and spontaneous hikes. She made people better. This project is for her. And for you.